

Fall 2018 Curriculum

This Fall, our “academic” course is entitled, Great Figures in Church History. During these weeks we will survey Church History through portraits of some of the key figures who did the most to shape it. Our “practical” track is broken up into two quarters. During the first, Father Ed will lead a course on how to Discover your Spiritual Gifts; during the second, Shireen David, Director of Mission and Outreach, and Father Matt Kozlowski will direct a condensed version of ALPHA.

ALL SAINTS UNIVERSITY

Classes Begin Sept. 23
@ 9 a.m.

Introducing ALL SAINTS UNIVERSITY...

...a brand new Sunday morning Adult Education experience. “ASU” is an expansion of our Adult Education platform which moves us beyond the model of one large forum to a model shaped around multiple focused classes. This gives us the ability to increase the types of offerings we make available to the parish, and to grow deeper in our knowledge and understanding of our faith.

In addition to the Family Forum in Memorial Hall at 9 a.m., we'll now have ASU classes meeting in the Library and the Parlor. Each semester, two classes will be offered, focusing on one of two learning emphases:

- LIBRARY: Courses that develop our minds by deepening our intellectual grasp of Scripture, theology, and church history (i.e. "academic" track).
- PARLOR: Courses that develop our hearts by focusing on practical ways to apply our faith to our everyday lives (i.e. "practical" track).

Detailed information on the offerings for this fall are on the back of this flier. We look forward to seeing you!

About Our Teachers

Our faculty for this Fall features an outstanding slate of teachers, of whom five are clergy, five are "doctors" or doctoral students, four have teaching experience at the university or seminary level, and others have decades of teaching experience in other distinguished institutions.
