HAVE YOUR VOICE HEARD!

Sunday, Sept 1 | 8:45 AM | Great Hall

Share your thoughts at next week's town hall on what you love about All Saints - and what opportunities we have - as our Vestry charts a course for the next five years. Questions, call Elizabeth Wrege at 202-421-7333. (ewrege@me.com).

ARE YOU GETTING PARISH NEWS?

- This announcement sheet is updated every week, and is available on Sunday mornings and on the church website under "News."
- Our colorful event posters in the main hallways advertise major upcoming events.
- Our weekly parish email, the "E-Blast", is sent every Friday morning and contains the Sunday schedule and important news.
- We are currently updating our website. Check us out at www.allsaintschurch.net.
- Finally, look for us on social media!

WELCOME & CONNECTING

NEWCOMERS

Welcome! We're so glad you chose to join us today. If desired, you may take small children who need to move or vocalize to the carpeted Bride's Room at the rear and still hear the service.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Need information about our church community and how you can get connected? Please fill out a Connect Card, stop by our Welcome Center in the Narthex today, or contact BJ Buracker at bj.buracker@allsaintschurch.net for more information.

CONNECTING

PRAYER REQUESTS

We have trained prayer ministers available during Communion—in St. Mary's Chapel (on the left side of the Nave) at 7:45 AM and St. Joseph's Chapel (right side) at 10 AM. You may also request prayer on the Connect Card in your pew. All prayers are confidential.

NAMETAGS

If you need a nametag, please note your name on the list at the Welcome Center. Leave tags on the board at any entrance when you depart the building; they will be there the following week.

PARKING

Please remember that the parking lot is reserved on Sundays for first-time visitors and those who need close access to the building for physical reasons.

FALL FESTIVAL - Save the date!

Saturday, October 12 | 11 AM - 2 PM

All Saints Preschool is 10 years old this year! In celebration of the anniversary, our annual Fall Festival this October will have a "birthday" theme - fun for our whole parish and an outreach to our local community.

How do we Share Christ's Love at All Saints?

We Gather in worship and community;

We Grow in faith and knowledge;

We Go out to love and serve.

Gather ... Grow ... Go!
