THE READING OF SCRIPTURE

The First Lesson

The congregation may be seated.

Acts 2:1-21

Reader: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

`In the last days it will be, God declares,

- 26 Yonder is the great and wide sea
with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great.
- 27 There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan,
which you have made for the sport of it.
- 28 All of them look to you to give them their food in due season.
- 29 You give it to them; they gather it;
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
- 30 You hide your face, and they are terrified;
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.
- 31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;
and so you renew the face of the earth.
- 32 May the glory of the LORD endure for ever;
may the LORD rejoice in all his works.
- 33 He looks at the earth and it trembles;
he touches the mountains and they smoke.
- 34 I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
I will praise my God while I have my being.
- 35 May these words of mine please him;
I will rejoice in the LORD.
- 37 Bless the LORD, O my soul.
Hallelujah!

The Second Lesson

Romans 8:22-27

Reader: A reading from Paul's Epistle to the Romans.

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

All stand.

The Gospel

John 15:26-27; 16:4b-15

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

"I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

HOLY BAPTISM.

Presentation and Examination of the Candidates

The baptismal candidates and sponsors proceed to the area near the font.

Children may come forward to sit on the carpets at the front of the church to observe.

Celebrant: Beloved in the Lord, we have come together in the presence of Almighty God our heavenly Father to witness the Sacrament of Holy Baptism by which these persons are to be made members of Christ's Body, the Church. By the working of this holy sacrament, ordained by Christ himself, they will die to sin and be raised to newness of life, receiving the fullness of God's grace that they may faithfully serve him all the days of their lives.

Answer: I do.

Celebrant: Do you put your whole trust in his grace and love?

Answer: I do.

Celebrant: Do you promise to follow and obey him as your Lord?

Answer: I do.

Then the Celebrant addresses the congregation, asking:

Celebrant: Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support these persons in their life in Christ?

People: We will.

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

the holy Catholic Church,
the communion of saints,

Celebrant: Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and forever.

People: Amen.

The Thanksgiving over the Water

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into ever-lasting life.

We thank you, Father for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

The Baptisms

Each candidate is presented by first name.

Celebrant: Name this child.

Celebrant: N., I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

The candidate is marked on the forehead with holy oil in the sign of the cross.

Celebrant: N., you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever.

People: Amen.

A Baptismal Candle is lighted from the Paschal Candle and presented, the Celebrant saying, Celebrant: Receive the light of Christ.

When this action has been completed for all candidates, the Celebrant prays over the newly baptized:

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give them an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works.

People: Amen.

Celebrant: Let us welcome the newly baptized.

People: We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

All exchange a sign of peace.

EARTH ON FIRE

By Peggy Eastman, Poet-in-Residence

Come, Holy Spirit, and cast your fire upon the earth.
No fire of destruction is this; yours is a fire of love, brought, bought and paid for by the death and resurrection of our Lord.

Holy Spirit, kindle fire in our hearts to spread your love, even as a fire spreads quickly through timber in a dry wood.

Holy Spirit, let our burning hearts light our way to those who desperately need Christ's love, even as a fire lights up everything in its path.

Holy Spirit, give us tongues of flame to proclaim the greatness of our Savior, even as you sent tongues of flame to the disciples on Pentecost.
Just as you freed their tongues to speak out to those who spoke other languages, so let us reach out to those who are different in appearance, culture and customs - spreading the Good News
wherever we go.

Holy Spirit, just as a fire consumes all in its way,
so let our burning hearts consume all that is not
of you: fear, greed, oppression, anger, jealousy, exploitation, violence, hatred, manipulation, envy,
guilt, resentment, impatience, revenge.

One more thing is needed: take from us all tepidity that could reduce our burning hearts to impotent smoldering embers.

Holy Spirit, just as the disciples felt a rushing wind from heaven on Pentecost that filled them with your burning love, so let us be filled with the divine rush of your burning love today.

Energize us, empower us, light us on fire,
we earnestly pray.

"I CAME TO CAST FIRE UPON THE EARTH; AND WOULD
THAT IT WERE ALREADY KINDLED." - LUKE 12:49
