The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

THE READING OF SCRIPTURE

The First Lesson

The congregation may be seated.

1 Corinthians 12:1-11

Reader: A reading from Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians.

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 36:5-10

(Please read responsively, by half verse.)

Refrain

Wie schön leuchtet

How price-less is your love, O God! In you we take our re-fuge.

- 5 Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, and your faithfulness to the clouds.
- 6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains,
your justice like the great deep;
you save both man and beast, O LORD.
- 7 How priceless is your love, O God!
your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
- 8 They feast upon the abundance of your house;
you give them drink from the river of your delights.
- 9 For with you is the well of life,
and in your light we see light.
- 10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you,
and your favor to those who are true of heart. Refrain

Please stand.

Sequence Hymn

Hymnal 135, vv. 1-2 – Songs of thankfulness and praise

At this time, children (ages 4 – 2nd grade) are dismissed for “Saints Too”- an optional half-hour children’s time; they will return in time for Communion with their families.

The Gospel

John 2:1-11

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon: The Rev. BJ Buracker

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People (Form III)

Reader: Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

People: That we all may be one.

Reader: Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

People: That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader: For our Local Outreach partners, especially Central Union Mission, committed to serving homeless and hurting people in DC, and ministering to them with the transformative grace of Jesus;

People: That they may be empowered to love the rejected and the outcasts as Jesus did.

Reader: For all bishops, priests, and deacons, especially the Presiding Bishop; our Bishop; and All Saints' clergy, ministry leaders, and staff.

People: That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader: We continue to pray for peace in the Middle East, in Ukraine, in the Congo, and in all places of conflict throughout the world. May violent hearts be transformed so that Your Spirit of peace, hope, justice, and compassion would govern all people. We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

People: That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader: We pray for our Annual Giving Campaign, that all parishioners will respond in faith and generosity to the blessings that you have given us. Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People: That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader: Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble. We also pray for those whose names are on our hearts and minds, those who have been made known to us and are named in love and hope in our Parish Prayer List, and those who are known only to you;

People: That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader: Give to the departed eternal rest,

People: Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader: We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

People: May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader: Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

(The people may add their own petitions.)

Concluding Collect

Celebrant: Almighty God, who has given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly ask you to save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought here out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in your Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home. Lord, we continue to pray for the health and safety of our Leaders and of those who protect them. May they peaceably go about their duties, serving your people. Make us a people who seek to walk the ways of grace – a kingdom of peacemakers... building your kingdom in the name of Christ! Send us forth showing your praise among the nations of the earth. Amen.

The Confession

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

(Silence may be kept.)

People: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

All exchange a sign of peace.

Presentation Hymn

Hymnal 119, v. 3

As they offered gifts most rare at that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy, pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring, Christ! to thee, our heavenly King.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer B

Our service continues on page 367 in the Book of Common Prayer (BCP), the red book in the pews.

Sanctus et Benedictus

Hymnal S-130

(Music: Richard Proulx. Copyright © 1971, 1977 GIA Publications, Inc. All rights reserved.)

*Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full, full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.*

Prayer of Thanksgiving (BCP p. 365)

Celebrant: Let us pray.

People: Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Please stand.

'MY PEACE I GIVE TO YOU'

By Peggy Eastman, Poet-in-Residence

(In honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.)

Peace. It needs to be wrapped around us, put on like a cloak.
It needs to be imbibed, ingested, savored by the senses. It needs to be absorbed through pores, pumped through arteries like oxygenated blood.

'My peace I give to you,' said the Lord.

Let it run freely like new wine;
like children's laughter, let it flow,
like the rising sun, let it burn,
like the North Star, let it shine,
like the eternal flame, let it glow.

Let it grow like springtime clover;
let it permeate verse and score.

Let it seep into the roots of ancient shibboleths;
let it cling to doors and rafters.

'My peace I give to you,' said the Lord.

Feel its touch on a southern wind;
embrace it like a yearning lover.

Let it nurture, let it nurse,
let it calm, let it mend, let it salve, let it tend wounds we didn't know we had.

Breathe it in, breathe it out.
Grant it life in: respiration, suspuration, aspiration, restoration.

Can't you feel it falling now like rain, gently at daybreak?

Can't you feel it settling now like snow, silently at midnight?

Like rainfall, like snowfall,
it will not be denied.

'My peace I give to you,' said the Lord.
