"Christ our Passover"

A Festive Canticle for Choir, Congregation, Organ, Brass, and Timpani From the Book of Common Prayer, 1979. Setting by Jeffrey H. Rickard The congregation is invited to sing the refrain.

(Choir)

 Not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Alleluia! [Refrain] (Choir)

Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over Him.

 Christ being raised from the dead, the first-fruits of them who have fallen asleep.
 (Choir)

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE READING OF SCRIPTURE

The First Lesson

The congregation may be seated.

Acts 10:34-43

Reader: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

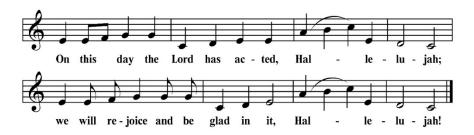

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 118:14-17, 22-24

(Verses sung by cantor; refrain sung by choir and congregation.)

- 14 The LORD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.
- 15 There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous: Refrain
- 16 "The right hand of the LORD has triumphed! the right hand of the LORD is exalted! the right hand of the LORD has triumphed!"
- 17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD. Refrain
- The same stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
- 23 This is the LORD'S doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes. Refrain

The Second Lesson

1 Corinthians 15:19-26

Reader: A reading from Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians.

If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

Hymnal 208, vv. 1-3 - The strife is o'er

At this time, children (ages  $4 - 4^{th}$  grade) are dismissed for Kids' Time. They will return in time for Communion with their families.

The Gospel

Luke 24:1-12

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women who had come with Jesus from Galilee came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon: The Rev. Jamie Pahl

SPRING (Ted McNabb 1982)

Spring, Butterfly spread your wings And softly ride the new winds. You have something new given you So fly, dance in the sky and give All the colors of life you live revealing All shades of love. In you promises do come true I see the way I want to be. Oh...

Touch me to die.
Hold me that I may perish.
Shroud me in love
Descend as a dove
Consuming fire.
Then raise me up high.
Unloose my wings, untie me!
Hear my voice sing and fly free.
There is no ending to what You're beginning. Oh...

And as your spirit grows, remember... Who gives you life.

And then fly on the Holy Winds that lift you high.

And then move with the Holy Wings that touch the sky.

And then sing with the Holy Spirit as you fly.

And then sing with the Holy Spirit

As you fly...

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate: he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

Prayers of the People (Form III)

Reader: Father, we pray for your holy catholic Church;

People: That we all may be one.

Reader: Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

People: That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader: Bless, O Lord, our Local and Global Outreach partners who are addressing food insecurity and hunger in our community and around the world.

People: That they may be empowered to love the rejected and the outcasts as Jesus did.

Reader: For all bishops, priests, and deacons, especially the Presiding Bishop;

our Bishop; and All Saints' clergy, ministry leaders, and staff.

People: That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader: We continue to pray for peace in the Middle East, in Ukraine, in the Congo, and in all places of conflict throughout the world. May violent hearts be transformed so that Your Spirit of peace, hope, justice, and compassion would govern all people. We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world, and especially for our elected leaders;

People: That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader: Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People: That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader: Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

especially the unemployed and those in financial distress.

We also pray for those whose names are on our hearts and minds, those who have been made known to us and are named in love and hope in our Parish Prayer List, and those who are known only to you;

People: That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader: Give to the departed eternal rest,

People: Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader: We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy; People: May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader: Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

(The people may add their own petitions.)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds:

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SEASON OF RESURRECTION

By Peggy Eastman, Poet-in-Residence

Tender tips of lightest green cleaving hard brown ground; firmly encased buds springing open on stark bare branches. Behold the season of wondrous surprise, surging new life that will not be denied.

Come away: let us escape into the awakening woodland. Breathe deeply...this is the refreshing scent of new growth. Walk softly...there are tiny wildflowers underfoot. Listen quietly...hear the rustlings of small, scurrying creatures leaving holes and nests to raise their nostrils and sniff the warming air. Hear a chorus of birds calling in high branches, proclaiming an end to long, bleak weeks of early darkness that dropped like a shroud too soon over days bathed only in wan, brief sunlight.

Rejoice: new life is quickening, pulsing, bursting, buzzing, thrusting, chirping, trilling, rising toward a gilded dawn. We, anchored to this earth, are privileged to bear witness to this annual grand awakening. More than witnesses, we. too, are part of this rapturous renewal. Our hearts are gladdened as our eyes lift to the azure air; around and within us all is stirring, tingling, glowing.

How could we ever doubt Your power to vanquish death, Lord? Each dewy new blade of grass, each shiny new leaf, each fragrant new petal proclaims Your triumph over the dark, cavernous tomb of death. You are Lord of the resurrection, and everything alive in this miraculous season shows forth Your glorious, victorious power.
