OPENING LITURGY

Prelude

Voluntaire sur “Sine Nomine” – Denis Bédard

(Copyright © 1998 Éditions Cheldar. All rights reserved.)

“Sine Nomine” is the tune-name for the Processional Hymn

Processional Hymn

Hymnal 287, vv. 1-4 – For all the saints

Opening Sentences

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People:* And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: There is one Body and one Spirit;

People:* There is one hope in God's call to us;

Celebrant: One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;

People:* One God and Father of all.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People:* And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.

People:* Amen.

THE READING OF SCRIPTURE

The First Lesson

The congregation may be seated.

Ephesians 1:11-23

Reader: A reading from Paul's letter to the Ephesians.

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 149

(Verses sung by cantor; refrain sung by choir and congregation.)

Refrain

- 1 Hallelujah!
Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.
- 2 Let Israel rejoice in his Maker;
let the children of Zion be joyful in their King. Refrain
- 3 Let them praise his Name in the dance;
let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.
- 4 For the LORD takes pleasure in his people and adorns the poor with victory. Refrain
- 5 Let the faithful rejoice in triumph;
let them be joyful on their beds.
- 6 Let the praises of God be in their throat and a two-edged sword in their hand;
- 7 To wreak vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples;
- 8 To bind their kings in chains and their nobles with links of iron;
- 9 To inflict on them the judgment decreed;
this is glory for all his faithful people.
Hallelujah! Refrain

The Gospel

Please stand

Luke 6:20-31

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets."

But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you."

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

People:* Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Homily: The Rev. Jamie Pahl

Presentation and Examination of the Candidates

The baptismal candidates and sponsors proceed to the area near the font.

Children may come forward to sit on the carpets at the front of the church to observe.

Celebrant: Beloved in the Lord, we have come together in the presence of Almighty God our heavenly Father to witness the Sacrament of Holy Baptism by which these persons are to be made members of Christ's Body, the Church. By the working of this holy sacrament, ordained by Christ himself, they will die to sin and be raised to newness of life, receiving the fullness of God's grace that they may faithfully serve him all the days of their lives.

Answer: I do.

Celebrant: Do you put your whole trust in his grace and love?

Answer: I do.

Celebrant: Do you promise to follow and obey him as your Lord?

Answer: I do.

Then the Celebrant addresses the congregation, asking:

Celebrant: Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support these persons in their life in Christ?
People: We will.

The Baptismal Covenant

Celebrant: Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?
People: I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant: Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People: I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Celebrant: Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People:* Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and forever.

People:* Amen.

The Thanksgiving over the Water

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People:* And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People:* It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into ever-lasting life.

We thank you, Father for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.

All:* Amen.

The Baptisms

Each candidate is presented by first name.

Celebrant: Name this child/person.

Celebrant: N., I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

The candidate is marked on the forehead with holy oil in the sign of the cross.

Celebrant: N., you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever.

People: Amen.

A Baptismal Candle is lighted from the Paschal Candle and presented, the Celebrant saying, Celebrant: Receive the light of Christ.

When this action has been completed for all candidates, the Celebrant prays over the newly baptized:

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give them an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works.

People: Amen.

Celebrant: Let us welcome the newly baptized.

People: We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

All exchange a sign of peace.

Saints in Training

By Peggy Eastman, Poet-in-Residence

How difficult it is to think of ourselves as living saints for our age, Lord.
How well we know how far short we fall in measuring up to what we wish to be in Your sight. Your holy yardstick reaches right up to heaven. And yet...haven't You called and empowered us?

Saints in training are we.

How hard it is, Lord, to love our enemies and pray for them; how much easier it is to pray for those we cherish. Our prayers for those who harm us stick in our throats.
How hard it is, Lord, to forgive those who wrong us; how much easier it is to condemn and castigate them. How hard it is to feed the poor, Lord; we have not Peter's touch at hauling in fish under your guidance, nor can the scant reserve of our food bank turn into enough bounty to feed five thousand. How much easier it is to turn aside from those with hungry eyes.
And yet...Haven't You filled us with the Spirit?

Saints in training are we.

Lord, we humbly ask You to give us servant hearts, open minds and willing hands so we can complete the course You have put before us. How we long to learn from the sacred Scriptures, grow in wisdom and compassion and act faithfully in Your name.
Dare we hope to become saints of God? Yes, because You chose us before we were even born.
You, Lord, wanted us before we even knew we wanted You. With Your help we will graduate from saints in training to mature Christians with full roles and responsibilities in Your service.
