The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People:* And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your lovingkindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson

The congregation may be seated.

Romans 6:1b-11

Reader: A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans.

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All:* Thanks be to God.

Psalm 69:8-11, 18-20

Please read responsively, by half verse.

Surely, for your sake have I suffered reproach, *
and shame has covered my face.

I have become a stranger to my own kindred, *
an alien to my mother's children.

Zeal for your house has eaten me up; *
the scorn of those who scorn you has fallen upon me.

I humbled myself with fasting, *
but that was turned to my reproach.

Answer me, O Lord, for your love is kind; *
in your great compassion, turn to me.'

Hide not your face from your servant; *
be swift and answer me, for I am in distress.

Draw near to me and redeem me; *
because of my enemies deliver me.

Please stand. All may join in singing.

Sequence Hymn

Hymnal 296

We Know That Christ Is Raised and Dies No More

The Gospel

Matthew 10:24-39

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the twelve disciples, "A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

"So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

"Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

"Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
and one's foes will be members of one's own household.

Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it."

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Children's Minute

Susan Awad

Children's Chapel Processional

Jesus Loves Me

Jesus loves me, this I know, for the Bible tells me so; Little ones to him belong, they are weak, but he is strong.

Yes, Jesus loves me, Yes, Jesus loves me,

Yes, Jesus loves me, the Bible tells me so.

At this time, children from 3 years old through 4th grade may follow the cross to be dismissed for Children's Chapel. Children's Chapel will convene in a Sunday School classroom on the second floor. They will return in time for communion with their families.

Sermon

The Rev. Meredith Kefauver-Olsen

The Nicene Creed

Please stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People (Form III)

Reader: Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church.

People:* That we all may be one.

Reader: Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

People:* That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader: We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons; for All Saints clergy, ministry leaders, and staff.

People:* That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader: We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world. We pray for peace in the Middle East, in Ukraine, in the Congo, here at home, and in all places of conflict throughout the world. We pray for deliverance from all danger, violence, oppression, and degradation.

People:* That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader: Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People:* That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader: Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble.

People:* That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader: Give to the departed eternal rest.

People:* Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader: We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

People:* May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader: Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

We pray especially for those on our Parish Prayer List.

We pray for the unemployed, those in financial distress, for those whose names are on our hearts and minds, and those who are known to God alone.

We pray for Rockville Women's Shelter and the 300 women who come through their facility every year to find shelter and help for physical and emotional needs.

(The people may add their own petitions.)

Concluding Collect

Celebrant: Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

(Silence may be kept.)

People:* Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Please stand.

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People:* And also with you.

All exchange a sign of peace.

Baptism at the River

By Peggy Eastman, Poet-in-Residence

written in honor of the birth of John the Baptist, on June 24

There were many standing on the river bank;
they shed their outer garments, murmured like water flowing over smooth pebbles.
You waited your turn. When it was time
You bent Your knee, lowered Your eyes.

John, who had longed for You with a parched desert longing, stepped back, demurred.
His eyes sought Yours; his hands trembled.
It was he who wanted to kneel; the sequence was not right. John tried to speak; the words clumped in his throat, then came out in a croak.
"It is I... it is I..." He started over.

"It is I who have need to be baptized by You."

You smiled, insisted, but gently, for You knew
Your cousin John to be a just man of rough edges, prone to a certain heedlessness, talking tirelessly of making Your path straight, but unsure of the exact particulars. How could John know the plan?
"Let it be so," You said, "for thus we will fulfill all righteousness." You purposely chose to say "we," wanting to draw John intimately into Your design, hoping by this small courtesy to put him at his ease.

You trailed Your fingers in the water, stooped lower, invited with Your eyes. Then John complied, placing his hands gingerly on Your head, barely touching Your hair. You sank below the water, rose up dripping, and as You rose the dove of light descended, coming to rest on Your wet shoulder.
John stood still; his eyes widened. So much light...
It was then he knew it was now the time for him to decrease so You could increase.
