The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People:* And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Grant to us, Lord, we pray, the spirit to think and do always those things that are right, that we, who cannot exist without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The congregation may be seated.

The First Lesson

1 Kings 19: 9-18

Reader: A reading from the First Book of Kings.

At Horeb, the mount of God, Elijah came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away."

He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." Then the Lord said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. Whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill. Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 85:8-13

Please read responsively, by half verse.

- 8 I will listen to what the Lord God is saying, *
for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to him.
- 9 Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him, *
that his glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Mercy and truth have met together; *
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- 11 Truth shall spring up from the earth, *
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
- 12 The Lord will indeed grant prosperity, *
and our land will yield its increase.
- 13 Righteousness shall go before him, *
and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.

Please stand. All may join in singing.

Sequence Hymn

Hymnal 608 – Eternal Father, Strong to Save

The Gospel

Matthew 14:22-33

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid."

Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Gospeller: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Children's Minute

Children may come forward for a short homily.
Rachel Walker, Children's Ministry Coordinator

Children's Chapel Processional

All may join in singing.

Jesus Loves Me

Jesus loves me, this I know, for the Bible tells me so;

Little ones to him belong, they are weak, but he is strong.

Yes, Jesus loves me, Yes, Jesus loves me, Yes, Jesus loves me, the Bible tells me so.

Children from 3 years old through 4th grade may follow the cross to be dismissed for Children's Chapel. Children's Chapel will convene in a Sunday School classroom on the second floor. They will return in time for communion with their families.

The Nicene Creed

Please stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People (Form III)

Reader: Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church.

People:* That we all may be one.

Reader: Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

People:* That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader: We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons; for All Saints clergy, ministry leaders, and staff.

People:* That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader: We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world. We pray for peace in the Middle East, in Ukraine, in the Congo, here at home, and in all places of conflict throughout the world. We pray for deliverance from all danger, violence, oppression, and degradation.

People:* That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader: Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People:* That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader: Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble.

People:* That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader: Give to the departed eternal rest, especially Robert H. C. Lester.

People:* Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader: We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

People:* May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader: Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

We pray especially for those on our Parish Prayer List.

We pray for the unemployed, those in financial distress, for those whose names are on our hearts and minds, and those who are known to God alone.

(The people may add their own petitions.)

Concluding Collect

Celebrant: Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
(Silence may be kept.)

People:* Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Please stand.

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People:* And also with you.

All exchange a sign of peace.

Transfigured by Divine Light

By Peggy Eastman, Poet-in-Residence

written in honor of the feast of The Transfiguration of our Lord Jesus Christ, August 6th

And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as light. –Matthew 17:2

What must it have been like for Peter, James and John to be there with You on that lofty mountain top, Lord?
Was there any warning? A sharp rush of wind that raised goosebumps on their arms? Or the hush of something wondrous about to happen? Or was it all so sudden, the dazzling light shining from Your face, and Your simple garments radiating brilliance? What must they have thought, those loyal apostles who had trudged behind You to that mountain height? Could they think?
Hadn't they wanted to catch their breath and sit awhile with You after their challenging ascent? But lo, there was more: did not Moses and Elijah miraculously appear and talk with you, Lord? How could it be?
And still more: did not Your Father's voice intone from a high cloud, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.' No wonder those bemused apostles fell on their faces in awe and fear.
Wouldn't we have done the same?
What clearer message can there be, Lord, that You are divine? What clearer command can there be, Lord, that we are to listen to You, love You and serve You?
Lord, please let Your light-filled countenance shine on us.
May we, like Peter, James and John, be awestruck by Your divinity. Then let us arise like Your apostles, filled with renewed zeal to do the work You have set before us to do in Your holy name.
